

What's next for the

& how can YOU get involved with efforts to revitalize the physical & social dimensions of the Old North neighborhood in a manner that respects the community's historic, cultural, & urban character?

Join us on Saturday, August 28 at 1 p.m.

At the offices of Old North St. Louis Restoration Group

2700 N. 14th Street

(1 block south of Crown Candy)

for a community discussion about what else could be done to improve the quality of life for all residents—and ways that you can participate in making that happen.

Some of our recent efforts have included:

Crown Square redevelopment of the former 14th Street Mall, including rehabbing 27 vacant buildings to create affordable & market-rate apartments and to bring in businesses that will employ residents and bring much-needed services to the neighborhood.

St. Louis BEACON NEWS THAT MATTERS
An oasis in a food desert, new food coop opens in Old North St. Louis

On July 17, we opened the Old North Grocery Co-op at 13th & St. Louis Avenue to bring healthy & affordable food options to the community.

North City Farmers' Market

Quality of Life meetings

Stabilizing vacant buildings

North Market Place homes

Community gardens

For more information about the meeting, call us at 314-241-5031.